Trump says US-Iran talks could resume over the next two days, ‘we’re more inclined’ to go to Pakistan: (Economy: Positive)

US President Donald Trump said on Tuesday that talks between Washington and Tehran could resume over the next two days and that “we’re more inclined to go” to Pakistan, reported The New York Post. “You should stay there, really, because something could be happening over the next two days, and we’re more inclined to go there,” Trump said. “It’s more likely, you know why? Because the Field Marshal is doing a great job. He’s fantastic, and therefore it’s more likely that we go back there,” he told The NY Post. “Why should we go to some country that has nothing to do with it?” He also confirmed to the The NY Post that he would not take part in the negotiations.

IMF cuts 2026 global growth forecast to 3.1pc on Mideast war, warns world economy could be ‘thrown off course’: (Economy: Neutral to Negative)

The International Monetary Fund (IMF) cut its 2026 global growth projection on Tuesday, warning that the world economy could be “thrown off course” by war in the Middle East — as the conflict roils commodity markets and sparks higher prices. The global economy is set to grow by 3.1 per cent this year, said the IMF in its World Economic Outlook report, released during its spring meetings in Washington. This is down from 3.3pc forecast in January before hostilities erupted on February 28 with US-Israeli strikes against Iran that prompted Tehran’s retaliation and sparked a broader conflict in the region. “We were planning to upgrade growth for 2026 to 3.4pc” if not for the war, IMF chief economist Pierre-Olivier Gourinchas told AFP.

Naqvi calls on businessmen to bring back ‘20-30pc’ of wealth to Pakistan: (Economy: Positive)

Interior Minister Mohsin Naqvi on Tuesday called on the business community to bring back “20-30 per cent” of their wealth to Pakistan ahead of the upcoming budget. Speaking at a ceremony at the Federation House in Karachi, he said that the government would facilitate the business community but “at least give this one gesture over the next three months, before the budget and then see what happens”. “It is not tedious. You have to go online and use an app,” he said, adding that Pakistan offered strong returns on investment. He said that if the business community took this one step, it would compel the government to take more measures in their interests. “So, before the budget, bring back $10 billion ... This is easily possible,” he said.
