Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif said early on Thursday that the 'Islamabad Memorandum of Understanding' (MoU) between the United States and Iran had been signed electronically by both sides. US and Iran presidents sign ceasefire agreement, but Trump says he could still resume attacks: (Economy: Neutral to Negative)

The U.S. and Iran released the text of an interim agreement to end their war on Wednesday, with U.S. President Donald Trump threatening to resume attacks and kill Iranian officials if they failed to honour their commitments. Trump, attending the G7 with other leaders in France, also withdrew at least one of his stated rationales for attacking Iran in the first place, saying it would be "unfair" for Tehran not to have ballistic missiles, having previously vowed to obliterate them. <https://www.brecorder.com/news/40426119/>

Pakistan eyes $2bn through international bonds: (Economy: Neutral to Positive)

With no projection for the Saudi Oil Facility (SOF) in the budget for 2026-27, Pakistan plans to raise $2 billion through the launching of international bonds such as Euro, Sukuk and Panda in the next fiscal year. This indicates that Islamabad prefers to remain on the radar screen of international investors by launching international bonds in the budget for 2026-27. "We plan to launch international bonds in the fiscal year 2026-27," a top official of the Finance Division told The News on Wednesday. <https://www.thenews.pk/print/1421255>

State Bank of Pakistan (SBP) data released on Wednesday showed that the surplus in May, compared with a deficit of $276m in April, has raised hopes that the government could close the fiscal year with either a surplus or only a marginal deficit. The previous fiscal year ended with a surplus of $1.8 billion. <https://www.dawn.com/news/2008684/>
