Pakistan, China aim to revamp economic corridor, Gwadar port: (Economy: Positive)

China and Pakistan have reached a “new broad consensus” on deepening strategic ties to beef up development of a joint economic corridor and establish the port of Gwadar as a regional connectivity hub, the neighbours said on Tuesday. The remarks came in a joint statement as Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif wrapped up a visit to Beijing at a time when Islamabad is seeking investment while navigating tension with Afghanistan and mediating in the Iran war. “Both sides welcomed third parties to participate in the development of China-Pakistan Economic Corridor under the model agreed,” they said in the statement, issued after Sharif met Chinese President Xi Jinping and Premier Li Qiang.

Iran and US agree plan for 60-day ceasefire extension after latest attacks: (Economy: Positive)

The United States and Iran reached an agreement on Thursday to extend their ceasefire pending the approval of President Donald Trump, after Iran had targeted a U.S. air base in Kuwait following U.S. strikes on what Washington called an Iranian drone operation. According to four sources familiar with the matter, the two sides agreed a memorandum-of-understanding to extend the truce for 60 days but the plan still needed Trump’s signoff. The agreement will state how to address Iran’s stockpile of highly enriched uranium, which will be among the first issues discussed during the 60-day window, according to an earlier report. The reports prompted oil prices to reverse course and trade lower on hopes of a potential reopening of the Strait of Hormuz.

US imposes fresh sanctions on Iran's military oil sales, Treasury says: (Economy: Neutral)

The U.S. said on Thursday it has imposed new sanctions on Iran’s military oil trade, even as Washington and Tehran reached a tentative agreement to extend their ceasefire and lift restrictions on shipping through the Strait of Hormuz. The Treasury Department said it had sanctioned eight vessels involved in transporting Iranian crude oil and petroleum products to global markets. The vessels included the Marshall Islands-flagged oil tanker Flora, the Comoros-flagged crude oil tanker Hauncayo and the Panama-flagged tanker Ill Gap. “We will not allow the Iranian government to increase its oil revenue for the purpose of reconstituting its armed forces and military capabilities,” Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent said in a release.

Oil prices settle in mixed direction on conflicting reports of US-Iran ceasefire deal: (Economy: Neutral to Positive)

Oil prices settled mixed on Thursday after a choppy trading session, as traders mulled conflicting reports of progress on a potential deal to extend a ceasefire between the U.S. and Iran. Brent crude futures for July, which expire on Friday’s settlement, closed down 58 cents, or 0.6%, at $93.71 a barrel. The more actively traded August Brent futures were last trading up by 72 cents at $92.97 as of 3:20 p.m. EDT (1720 GMT). Oil prices have been volatile in recent sessions on conflicting signals on the possibility of an end to the three-month Iran war and potential re-opening of the Strait of Hormuz. Traffic through the maritime chokepoint remains a small fraction of the pre-war level.

Govt mulls 20% windfall gain tax: (Economy: Neutral, OMC/Refineries: Neutral to Negative)

The government is considering proposals either seeking imposition of a windfall gain tax to take a pie out of the estimated Rs130 billion profit being earned by oil sector companies during war time or a mechanism to pay back to consumers after recovering the money from these entities. Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif has constituted a committee, which in addition to finding a solution to the freezing of salaries of foreign-qualified university professors has been mandated to look for a way to recover an estimated Rs72 billion from oil marketing companies (OMCs). Any decision to impose the windfall gain tax on both oil refineries and marketing companies can be implemented through a Statutory Regulatory Order (SRO) without the need for amending the Income Tax Ordinance in budget, say government sources. The other option is to recover the money from OMCs and transfer it to consumers through oil prices.

FFC inks coal-to-urea FEED agreement under CPEC 2.0: (Economy: Neutral, FFC: Positive)

Fauji Fertilizer Company (FFC) has signed a Front-End Engineering Design (FEED) agreement with China's Hualu Engineering and Technology Co. Ltd for the development of Pakistan's first coal-to-urea fertilizer project, which marks a step in the country's industrial and agricultural self-reliance. The agreement was signed in China on May 24, 2026, with a total investment of US$1.12 billion, according to the company's post on LinkedIn. The project, being developed under the framework of CPEC 2.0, will have an annual production capacity of 717,000 tons of urea and will consume approximately 2.1 million tons of indigenous coal each year. By leveraging domestic coal reserves as feedstock, the initiative aims to reduce Pakistan's dependence on imported gas for fertilizer production while adding value to local natural resources. FFC said the plant is planned for commissioning by 2030/31, and the project highlights the company's commitment to innovation, energy diversification, and long-term food security for Pakistan.
